This is to bring to your information that on the account of Vishwakarma pujo (18th Sept, 2023) it is noticed that, due to unavailability of public transport, it will create inconvenience for the day scholar and others too.

Further note that, due to Ganesh Chaturthi (19th Sept, 2023) we will also be pleased if you join us in the celebration held at our college campus.

On the account of both the occasion all the academic and non academic activities will remain close on 18th and 19th September, 2023. Classes will resume again on 20th September.
