Celebration on Constitution Day – Samvidhan Diwas

Brief Overview of the Celebration

Date of Celebration: 26 November 2025

Organized By: Global Group of Institutions

Venue: Hall – 2

Time: 11:00 AM Onwards

Theme: “Values, Principles & Citizen Responsibilities under the Indian Constitution”

1. Introduction

Constitution Day is celebrated annually to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India on 26th November 1949. The event at Global Group of Institutions aimed to promote constitutional values, strengthen democratic awareness, and enrich student understanding of the rights and duties enshrined in the Constitution.

The program included Preamble Reading, speeches by faculty, an informative session on constitutional principles, and a quiz to assess and inspire knowledge among students.

Constitution Day, or Samvidhan Diwas, is observed to pay tribute to Dr. B.R. Ambedkar and the Drafting Committee who shaped the guiding document of the world's largest democracy. The Global Group of Institutions organized a structured and insightful programme to help students appreciate the essence of the Constitution and understand its relevance in contemporary society.

The observance was designed to empower students with foundational civic knowledge and inspire responsible citizenship. The sessions highlighted the Constitution's emphasis on justice, equality, liberty, and fraternity.

2. Objectives of the Programme

- To raise awareness about the historical significance of the Indian Constitution.
- To promote understanding of fundamental rights and duties.
- To encourage reflective Preamble reading in both English and Bengali.
- To highlight the role of citizens in upholding democratic values.
- To enhance student engagement through speeches and quizzes.
- To strengthen respect for national unity, integrity, and diversity.

3. Pre-Event Preparations

Committee Formation & Planning

- A planning committee consisting of faculty and student coordinators was formed under the Activity Cell.
- Roles were assigned for hosting, Preamble reading, logistics, and quiz management.

- Invitations were circulated among students and departments.

Information & Awareness Campaign
